

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI
WESTERN DIVISION

FREDERICK BANKS, #05711-068

PLAINTIFF

VERSUS

CIVIL ACTION NO. 5:09-cv-78-DCB-MTP

BARACK OBAMA, et al.

DEFENDANTS

ORDER DENYING IN FORMA PAUPERIS STATUS AND DISMISSING CASE

There came on for consideration of the Court in the captioned cause the Plaintiff's application to proceed in forma pauperis in this civil action. On May 12, 2009, Plaintiff, an inmate of the Federal Bureau of Prisons, currently incarcerated at the FCC-Yazoo, Yazoo City, Mississippi, filed this complaint against Barack Obama, Harley Lappin, Federal Bureau of Prisons, Bruce Pearson, S. Johnson, Unknown McMasters, Unknown McCutcheon, Skipper Scott, Rick Dalton and United States of America.

The Court finds that during Plaintiff's incarceration, he has brought at least three civil actions or appeals under § 1915 which have been dismissed as frivolous, malicious, or for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. Plaintiff's in forma pauperis application in this civil action will therefore be denied pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g).

DISCUSSION

The Prison Litigation Reform Act provides, among other things, that a prisoner's privilege to proceed in forma pauperis is revoked if they have, on three prior occasions during detention, had an action or appeal dismissed as frivolous, malicious, or for failing to state a claim. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g).¹ The Court must consider all actions which were dismissed as frivolous, malicious or which failed to state a claim, whether dismissed before or after enactment of the PLRA. Adepegba v. Hammons, 103 F.3d 383, 386 (5th Cir. 1996)(counting as a “strike” a district court’s dismissal, prior to enactment of the PLRA, of a frivolous § 1983 claim).

Additionally, the “three strikes” provision applies to cases pending prior to the enactment of the PLRA.

Although section 1915(g) attaches consequences to past actions, we find that these consequences are matters of procedure. Section 1915(g) does not affect a prisoner’s substantive rights, and it does not block his or her access to the courts. A prisoner may still pursue any claim after three qualifying dismissals, but he or she must do so without the aid of the i.f.p. procedures... Prisoners who are not allowed to proceed i.f.p. may pursue their substantive claims just as anyone else by paying the filing fee. This requirement is neither novel or penal. It does not increase a prisoner’s liability, but merely puts prisoners who abuse a privilege on the same footing as everyone else.

Id. at 386-87.

Plaintiff Banks has, on not less than three occasions, "brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted."² 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). Therefore, denial of Plaintiff’s i.f.p. privilege is appropriate. Since Plaintiff is being denied permission to proceed as a pauper and the Court has not received payment of the filing fee for this civil action, this case facility brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury.”

² In Banks v. Hayward, et al., No. 06-509 (W.D. PA. May 30, 2006), Plaintiff’s claim was dismissed for failure to state a claim.

In Banks v. Hayward, et al., No. 06-1572 (W.D. PA. Jan. 10, 2007), Plaintiff’s claim was dismissed as frivolous and/or for failure to state a claim.

In Banks v. Dove, et al., No. 06-2289 (M.D. PA. Jan. 16, 2007), Plaintiff’s claim was dismissed as frivolous.

In Banks v. Pittsburgh Tribune Review, et al., No. 07-336 (W.D. PA. May 4, 2007), Plaintiff’s claim was dismissed for failure to state a claim.

will be dismissed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, that Plaintiff's motion to proceed in forma pauperis in this cause is denied pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g) and this case is hereby dismissed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Clerk of Court is directed to re-open this civil action if the full filing fee of $350.00 is paid within thirty days from the entry of this Order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that since the defendants have not been called on to respond to Plaintiff's pleading, and the Court has not considered the merits of Plaintiff's claims, the Court's Order of dismissal is without prejudice. See Munday/Elkins Auto. Partners, LTD. v. Smith, No. 05-31009, 2006 WL 2852389, at *2 (5th Cir. Oct. 2, 2006).

A Final Judgment in accordance with this Order of dismissal will be entered.

SO ORDERED, this the 18th day of May, 2009.
